Cho Oyu Expedition

Tour Overview

A dream to climb the 8000 meters Peak that would be possible in the first case on Mt. Cho Oyu.

Join us to climb one of the famous climbing mountains ChoOyu (8201m) which is 20 km west of Everest, at the border between China and Nepal. Cho Oyu means “Turquoise Goddess” in Tibetan. This peak is first climbed on 19 October 1954 via the northwest ridge by Tichy, Josep Jochler, and Pasang Dawa Lama. Cho Oyu is taken the easiest to climb among the eight-thousanders.

We operate Cho Oyu Expedition on both sides of Nepal and Tibet. Our strongest Sherpa leads the expedition that counts the more success rate in every season.
