Nepal Everest Base Camp Trek

Tour Overview

The Everest Base Camp trek is a journey through teahouses, offering stays in some of the world's highest villages where you can immerse yourself in local cultures and traditions, and witness life in the Himalayas' remote areas. In the Sherpa villages, you'll gain insights into the mountain lifestyle and the deep connection between the people and the mountains. The trek features many significant milestones, with Kala Patthar being a highlight. At an elevation of 5,500 meters, it provides a breathtaking view of Mt. Everest. The EBC trek is an exceptional chance to witness the Himalayan majesty, embrace the formidable challenge and excitement of the ascent, and explore the enchanting culture of Nepal. The awe-inspiring vistas from the summit of Mt. Everest, the expansive Khumbu Glacier, the historic path trodden by Tenzing Norgay and Edmund Hillary, the first humans to summit the highest point on Earth, the homeland of the renowned Sherpa community, and the presence of four of the world's peaks above 8000 meters—Everest, Lhotse, Lhotse Shar, and Cho Oyu—make this a journey of a lifetime! Experience the best trekking in Nepal.

Detailed Itinerary

Day 1: Arrival in Kathmandu Airport (1345m).

There you will be Greet and met by our Airport Representative and transferred to hotel by private tourist vehicle. Overnight at hotel.

Your sightseeing trip will start in the morning after breakfast. We will provide a private vehicle and professional tour guide. Places we visit Pasupatinath temple, Buddhanath, Monkey temple and Kathmandu durbar square. The afternoon includes a final briefing and preparations for the trek. Overnight at hotel.

Day 3: Fly to Lukla (2804 meters) trek to Phakding (2610 meters) 3 hours.

An early morning start takes us to Tribhuvan International Airport in Kathmandu for the 35-minute scenic flight to Lukla at 2804 meters. On arrival at the airport guide will brief you and introduce our porters before we begin our trek towards Phakding at 2610 meters. Overnight at Guesthouse.

Day 4: Trek to Namche Bazaar (3441 meters) 5 hours.

Namche Bazar known as the Gateway to Everest, there are many good hotels and lodges here, along the whole Everest trail this is quite a big village. This Bazaar is the administrative centre for the Khumbu region and has a headquarters for Sagarmatha National park. Historically this place was Sherpas herders and traders. Overnight at guest house.

Day 5: Namche Bazar Acclimatization day.

We will spend a day here in order to acclimatize and adjust to the thinning of the air. As well as a short trek to a museum celebrating the traditional customs of the Sherpa, people to visit. Today we hike up the Syangboche Airport, and around Everest View Hotel. From this point, we can see rewarding views of the Himalayas with a stunning sunrise or sunset over the panorama of the Khumbu peaks. Overnight at Guesthouse.

Day 6: Trek to Tengboche (3867 m.) 5-6 hrs.

The route weaves in and out of side valleys. Making small ups and downs, to the souvenir stalls, teashops, crosses the Kenjoma, and Khumjung villages. On the way of morning, walking you could see the Tahr below the trail and the views of Mt. Everest and Mt. AmaDablam are excellent. Yours walk continue towards the Tengboche through the forest and from Phunki Thanga to Tengboche it takes 2 hour climb and the trail steeply climb the first. Then makes a gradual ascent through forest and around mani stones as it follows the sides of a hill up to the saddle on which the monastery sits at 3870m, in clearing surrounded by dwarf firs and rhododendrons. Kwangde(6187m), Tawache(6542m), Everest, Lhosts, Nuptse, amaDablam and thamskerku provide an inspiring panorama of Himalaya giants. This is the religious centre of the whole "Sherpa- land" in fact the entire Solu-Khumbu area. We of course visit the old Monastery and the old designed of it.

Day 7: Trek to Pheriche (4240 m.) 4-5 hrs.

From Tengboche it is a short, steep and muddy decent to Devuche through the forest of birches, conifers and rhododendrons. The Himalayan Monal or pheasant we can be easily seen in this route. In the morning and just before dusk you may see the musk deer, especially in the forests below Tengboche. Some Gompas and few house of the tiny village of Devuche are off in the trees to the west and the nunnery is up the hill to the east. On the way, we cross the Imja Khola the route passes the some magnificently carved mani stones to Pangboche at 3860m. Pangboche is the highest year -round settlement in valley. The Pangboche Gompa is the oldest in Khumbu and one contained relics that were said to be the skull and the hand of a yeti. Beyond Pangboche the routes enters alpine meadows above the tree line. Most of vegetation is scrub juniper and tundra. Then we walk through the Somare and Orsho village and after Orsho the trail leads to Dingboche and one leads in the left to Pheriche At 4240m. There is HRA . A western Physician is usually in attendance during the trekking season from March to mid may and October to Mid December. The doctor gives lecture every day.
