Tiji Festival Mustang Trek

Tour Overview

The famous local festival in Upper Mustang of Nepal is called Tiji which is an ancient ritual festival. The three-day ceremony of this festival, the main story is "Changing the Demons". It is believed that Guru Rinpoche who brought Tantric Buddhism to Tibet and who is revered as having supernatural powers. This festival has more than 50 different magical mask dances, Monks and dancers wear colorful peacock-feather hats twirl, Big holly horns blow and read mantras by monks, and Lobas have Mustangi finest dressed and jewelry at the presence of The King of Mustang making an appearance as the procession on day three of this festival.

The Mustang trek in Nepal is unique for its own language, culture and traditions which is almost pure Tibetan. At the head of the Kali Gandaki, north of the Annapurna and Dhaulagiri Himalaya lies one of the most culturally interesting and scenically dramatic regions in Nepal. This is a land of legends, myth, and mystery.

Detailed Itinerary

Day 1: Arrive in Kathmandu

Welcome and greet you at Airport then Transfer to the Hotel.

Day 2: Kathmandu: Sightseeing and Trek Preparation.

Today after breakfast we start a guided tour to several of the most historical and spiritual attractions in Kathmandu. Some of these landmarks include the World Heritage Sites: the historic Kathmandu Durbar Square, the sacred Hindu temple of Pashupati Nath Temple and Buddhist shrine (Buddha Nath) which is one of the largest Stupas in the world. In the afternoon, there will be a pre-trip discussion where we can meet our trek leader and other team members.(A.B.)

Day 3: Kathmandu to Pokhara (823m)

6 hrs drive Early morning at around 7 am, we set off for Pokhara on a tourist bus. En route we will see more of the countryside of Nepal that offers greeneries, rivers, villages, farms and beautiful mountain sceneries. Afternoon, we reach Pokhara. Pokhara offers magnificent views of Dhaulagiri, Manaslu, Machhapuchhare, five peaks of Annapurna and others. Pokhara is city of lakes and has numerous beautiful lakes. We can explore the most accessible and beautiful, Fewa Lake during the afternoon -enjoy boating too. (A.B.L.D)

Day 4: Fly to Jomsom & trek to Kagbeni (2,858m): 3-4 hrs

After an early breakfast transfer to the airport for a morning flight to Jomsom, a super scenic flight of 20 minutes over the mountains with views of 8,000ers such as Annapurna & Dhaulagiri, brings you at Jomsom, the district headquarters of Mustang. This is a large town; headquarters of the Mustang region; it is also a major village on the Kaligandaki area linking the age-old Trans-Himalayan Salt Trade route to Tibet. From Jomsom onwards it is very windy in the afternoon, Continue on the gradual path on the Kali Gandaki river bed for about 3 hrs and finally reaching at Ekley-bhatti village. After a good stop here an hour of easy walk takes us to Kagbeni, which lies at the bank of two rivers. Kagbeni is an interesting windswept village situated on the main age old Trans-Himalayan salt trade route to Tibet via the Upper

Mustang area. In Kagbeni a major tributary, Kak Khola, coming from Muktinath, meets Mustang Khola, and from there the river is called the Kali Gandaki. (A.B.L.D)

Day 5: Kagbeni to Chele (3050m)

5-6 hrs Our journey starts with a special permit check-up and onwards to the riverbank of Kaligandaki upstream. During the walk, we have a scenic picturesque place to stop through the sandy and windy trails. This trail follows the up and downhill. Firstly we reach Tangbe village with narrow alleys amongst white-washed houses, and fields of buckwheat, barley, wheat and apple orchards. From there we trek forward to Chhusang and after crossing the river head up to the huge red chunk of conglomerate that has fallen from the cliff above, forming a tunnel through which the Kaligandaki follows. We head on to small ridges and reach at Chele village. (A.B.L.D).

Day 6: Chele to Syanbochen (3475m): 6-7 hrs

we start our trek again and walk further to Eklo Bhatti. We climb to Taklam La Pass (3,624m) through plateaus and narrow stretches with views of Tilicho Peak, Yakawa Kang and Damodar Danda. Further descend a little to the village of Samar. Climb the trail that goes above Samar village to the ridge then descend steeply to a stream. Another 3 hrs similar walk takes us to Syanbochen. On the way, we relax along the surrounding of cool streams and juniper trees. Locals use the dried leaves of junipers as incenses to invite deities and start any auspicious work. We also pass by a cave famously known as Ramchung Cave. (A.B.L.D)
